To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

SATURDAY was the ninety-second anniversary of Vermont as a State.

NORTHFIELD has voted $8,000 to buy a Poor Farm.

The thermometer this morning, at 7 o'clock, marked six degrees below zero.

DISTRICT DONATION.—We understand that a donation visit will be held at the M. E. District Parsonage, in St. Albans, on Wednesday evening next, for the benefit of Elder Ray.

ST. ALBANS, VT., Jan. 9.

At a meeting of Washington Engine Company, No. 1, it was voted that the Company tender its late officers their congratulations for their preference; and that they extend to them and to the Board their cordial support.

By the Company,
C. B. GREENE,
Clerk.

CONVICTED OF PERJURY.—Joseph E. Trask, of Granville, was convicted of perjury at the late term of the Windsor County Court. Trask is at liberty on $700 bail, pending an appeal to the Supreme Court.

FESTIVAL.—There is to be an entertainment at Academy Hall, Wednesday evening, January 27, consisting of dramas, acting ballads and tableaux, under the superintendence of Dr. S. A. Smith. Ice cream, oysters, cake, &c., will be offered for sale. The proceeds are to be devoted to the purchase of a Harmonium for the basement of the Catholic Church.

THE VERMONT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—This Company, chartered by our last Legislature, as our readers are aware, organized at Burlington on New Year's Day. We are informed that a considerable number of policies have been issued already, and that the Company has commenced business with very flattering prospects. From the Company's circular, which is before us, we learn that its rates of insurance are quite as moderate as any mutual insurance company in the United States, and lower than most of the companies now doing business in Vermont. Its capital to the amount of $50,000 was paid up on its organization, and is being increased to $125,000, as the occasion requires. The well known character of the directors and other officers of the company, is a sufficient guarantee that the business will be properly and safely managed.

All policies, in every class, are non-forfeitable after two annual premiums have been paid thereon, and the company insures upon all the modern and improved plans. Dividends will be made to every policy holder after the first year, and will continue during the term of life, or endowment, although but two annual premiums have been paid. Allowing the management of this company to be as economical as others (of which there is no doubt), and the rate of mortality no greater, the dividends must equal in amount those of any other company. Other things being equal, there is every reason why the people of Vermont should insure in this Company. We understand that an agent of the company will soon be appointed in St. Albans.

Now is your time to buy a suit of clothes cheap at No. 2, Darrow Block.

THE "NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY," OF ST. ALBANS.—An act was passed by the Legislature and approved Nov. 19, 1868, to incorporate a savings bank with the aforesaid title, at St. Albans. The capital stock is to be divided into shares of $100 each, to the amount of $100,000, which may be increased to $300,000. The books for receiving subscriptions for shares in said corporation are to be opened at St. Albans within six months after the passage of the act of incorporation. The commissioners to receive subscriptions and to organize the company are as follows: Worthington C. Smith, Bradley Barlow, George G. Hunt, James Saxe, Horatio N. Barber, Aldis O. Brainerd, Jasper Rand, Martin Seymour, Lawrence Brainerd, Jr., Horace H. Locklin, Samuel Williams, Abner Forbes, F. Stewart Stranahan, John W. Newton, Guy C. Noble, John C. Farrar, John J. Burgess, and George Gregory Smith. The officers of the Company are to consist of a President, Vice President, and seven Directors, together with the other officers usually appointed for such associations.

Annual Meeting of Franklin Co. Temperance Society.

The annual meeting of this Society, for the choice of officers; to hear the report of and to nominate a County Commissioner; to discuss questions relating to the unlawful sale and use of intoxicating liquors; and to do any other business proper to the occasion; will be held in the Methodist chapel at Franklin Centre, on Tuesday, the 26th day of January, 1869, at 10 o'clock a. m. We earnestly call upon all who desire the progress of temperance principles in our County to be present that they may devise ways and means to curtail the sale and use of this curse and poison of humanity.

RICHFORD.—A donation visit for the benefit of Rev. B. F. Livingston will be held at the Methodist Parsonage, in Richford, on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

There will be a meeting of the Franklin County Union Agricultural Society (of Richford and vicinity), for the election of its officers for the year ensuing, at the American House in Richford, Jan. 31st, 1869, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

The School District of Richford Village have voted to build a new school house, similar to that of the Academy Building at St. Albans, with the basement left out and the third story left off. The cost of the building is estimated to be about $8,000.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—The Herald says there will be a grand Masonic Festival at the Rutland Opera House early in February, of which due notice will be given. The Keene full band—Will Allen, leader—will furnish the music. A general invitation will be extended to the fraternity, who are expected to appear in full regalia. The different railroads, probably, will carry those attending the festival at half fare.

State Temperance Convention.

The following resolutions, after being discussed, were adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That with our stringent temperance law, the continuance of the unlawful traffic in intoxicating liquors, where the clear evidence of such traffic exists, is chargeable upon such temperance men.

Whereas, We regard the use of intoxicating drinks as more blighting to the welfare of our nation and people than all the havoc of war, and having witnessed the sad effects of intemperance in the high places, and the value of temperance examples exhibited by man in exalted positions;

Therefore, Resolved, That we have read with a high degree of satisfaction the recent published reports of the firm position taken by Gen. Grant and Chief Justice Chase, our President and Vice-President, in utterly refusing to taste intoxicating drinks, on various public occasions, and refusing to allow wines upon their table.

Destructive Fire in Milton.

The Free Press of Saturday gives the following account of a fire in Milton on the morning of that day:

A disastrous fire occurred in Milton about three o'clock this morning, resulting in the total destruction of the large wooden block owned by E. L. Whitney, and the dwelling house and lumber yard belonging to Lyman Burgess. The block of Mr. Whitney contained the "Central House," a L. Witters proprietor; and the stores of E. S. Whitney, druggist; Eben Whitney, grocery and dry goods; the office and store of E. G. Holbrook, manufacturer; the town agency and shoe shop of Elesteria Irish; the billiard room and bowling alley of S. Bassford; the millinery shop of Miss Rosa Powell; the Post office and Wood & Co's, coal warehouse and saw factory.

The fire originated in the bowling alley and spread so rapidly that it was impossible to check its progress. Most of the property in the buildings was removed with the exception of the billiard tables and some of Miss Powell's goods. The citizens behaved zealously to subdue the flames, and though but a little wind was blowing, it is thought that but for their efforts other buildings would have been destroyed. As it was several of the adjacent houses and the bridge were on fire several times and were only saved by the greatest exertion.

The heaviest sufferer by the fire is E. L. Whitney, owner of the "Central House" block. The building was valued at about $10,000 and insured for $8,500. The loss on the other property cannot fall short of $2,000.

The loss to the town by this fire will be severe, as the block was the finest building in the place. The injury to the business interest of the village, by the destruction of these stores is heavy and it is thought will lead to the speedy rebuilding.

MISSISSQUOI RAILROAD.—The undersigned, Commissioners, appointed by the Act of the Legislature of the State of Vermont, "Approved Nov. 14, 1867," incorporating the Missisquoi Railroad Company, and by the Act of said Legislature at the session thereof in 1868, amending said Act of incorporation, give notice that books for subscriptions to be opened for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company at the American House in Richford, on the 20th day of January, A. D., 1869, at one o'clock P. M., and remain open until the amount of stock is subscribed for, required by said act of incorporation to organize said company.

THE BURLINGTON SENTINEL.—The last issue of this paper has the following announcement:
With this issue the proprietorship of the Sentinel passes into the hands of a gentleman well known in Burlington and throughout the State, having purchased it from the late proprietor. The editorial management will continue, as heretofore, under the control of William W. Eaton. By this means the present editor will be able to give undivided attention to the editorial management of the paper, and many improvements are anticipated.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. Seraphine Jones, who died on the 8th inst. in Montpelier, was a daughter of Bradford Powell, one of the first settlers of this town. She was born in Richford, May, 6, 1808. When 12 years of age her father died, and she then went to Dunham, P. Q., where she remained about a year, when she went to St. Albans, remaining there about 10 years, in the families of Dr. Julius Hoyt, John Smith, and the Rev. Worthington Smith. In those families she enjoyed good religious privileges, and became a member of the Congregational Church, of which she was a member while she remained in that town. About the year 1836, she returned to this town and lived with her brother, Rev. Jay Powell. She was married to Levi Jones, of Montgomery Village, in 1840. She afterwards joined the Methodist Church, of which she remained a member until her death.—Richford Sentinel.

A COLLECTOR WANTED.—The Brattleboro Record thus advertises for a person to collect newspaper accounts:
A brazen-faced, pigeon-toed, knock-kneed, slab-sided, peck-marked, lantern-jawed individual, looking like the Imp of Darkness struck by a m at axe and sued for murder, who will furnish his own team, provisions and jack-knife, will be furnished by the editor of this paper with about $3,000 worth of bills to collect. We have tried our hand and failed in the attempt, and now we propose to see if we can't worry our jugs out of the phlegmatic pockets of those vandals who withhold it from us.

Canadian Items.

The Montreal Telegraph Company intend opening a line between Fredericton and Richford. Captain Smith has a contract for the poles and is now delivering them on the road between the above-mentioned villages. The line will be in working order early in the Spring.

The Sherbrooke Gazette rejoices over the discovery of an excellent quarry of flagstones, close to the line of the Grand Trunk Railway, about a mile and a quarter from Brompton Falls.

On the 6th instant, the following gentlemen were duly installed officers-bearers of Fredericton Lodge, No. 199:—

W. Bro. G. R. Marvin, W. M.
Bro. E. H. Goff, S. W.
Bro. J. Landsberg, J. W.
Bro. Elijah Rowell, Chap.
Bro. S. R. Whitman, Treas.
Bro. F. J. Parker, Secy.
Bro. E. E. Spencer, S. D.
Bro. John Toof, J. D.
Bro. J. S. Lamoure, D. S. C.
Bro. Noah Sager, Stewards.
Bro. Rolt, Oliver,
Bro. E. P. Macey, J. D.
Bro. M. Spencer, Tyler.

The News says: After the installation ceremonies took place the Brethren proceeded to the Spencer House, and with a number of invited guests partook of a supper prepared for the occasion. Among the guests present were, R. W. Bro. J. H. Graham, D. D. G. M.; R. W. Bro. Stevens Baker, G. J. W., Dunham; W. Bro. M. R. Meigs, Bedford. At the proper time the W. M. proposed the usual Masonic and loyal toasts, commencing with the "Queen and the craft." At an advanced hour the toast of the J. W. was given and duly appreciated.

Mr. Virgil Titus, formerly and for many years a resident and prominent citizen of St. John's, died at his residence in Dedham, Mass., on the 11th instant. His age was 69 years.

W. C. Pulaski, of the firm of Pulaski & Martin, dry goods merchants, Montreal has absconded. This concern is heavily involved. The creditors are all Montreal firms.

A Montreal committee of chairmen have resolved to apply to the Legislature, at its next session, for power to borrow $750,000, to be expended on the water works.

An exchange says:—Mr. Horace Greeley's Zollverein scheme has been freely discussed by the Canadian press, and meets with little favor. It is generally understood that the inevitable consequence of such an arrangement as Mr. Greeley proposes would be to sever our connection with Great Britain, and it is, therefore, seconded by journals of all shades of politics in Quebec and Ontario.

A new Masonic Lodge is to be opened in Knowlton.

BAILEY'S BUTTER TUB.

Boston, Dec. 18, 1868.

A. B. BAILEY, DEAR SIR:

The time has come when the advantages of your tub are apparent; nearly all that we are receiving (unless late fall or winter make) is strong on top which would not be the case if put up in your tub. If there are any nice dairies in your vicinity put up in your tub you may pay 2 cents per lb. more for them than for Summer dairies put up in the old style tub. In fact we don't want any Summer dairies at any price in the old tubs. We can buy common butter here lower than you can up there. We think Poetry is dull this week, can't tell how it may be at Christmas.
